Morning Humor

As he stood at the bar for the first time with his son the proud father said, "Now is a good time to talk about some of the facts of life. Remember, a man that drinks beyond his capacity is no gentleman. To enjoy life you must observe a happy medium. Have a drink occasionally, but never, never, never get drunk." "Yes sir," replied his dutiful son, "but how am I to know when I am drunk?" "Well, you see those two men over there in the corner?" said the father. "If you were to see four men, you'd know you were drunk." "Dad, let me have the keys," grinned the son. "There's only one guy over there."

A college senior took his new girlfriend to a football game. The young couple found seats in the crowded stadium and were watching the action. A substitute was put into the game, and as he was running onto the field to take his position, the boy said to his girlfriend, "Take a good look at that fellow. I expect him to be our best man next year." His girlfriend snuggled closer to him and said, "That's the strangest way I ever heard of for a fellow to propose to a girl, but I'll take it!"

At a training session in the fire station, the team was assembled around the kitchen table. The training officer was discussing the behavior of fire. "You pull up to a house and notice puffs of smoke coming from the eaves, blackened out windows and little or no visible flame. What does this tell you?" he asked. He was expecting to hear that the house is in a possible back draft situation, a condition very dangerous to fire fighters. Instead he heard the following from one quick wit in the back, "You got the right place!"

During the geography class on the Eastern Mediterranean, the teacher asked Little Johnny, "What are the Phoenicians noted for?" Little Johnny paused and then replied, "For their blinds!"

Serving the Children of the Methow Valley & Beyond

Breakfast meetings every Tuesday, 7:00 am at the Winthrop Barn

Newsletter Editor: Roy Reiber

Volume 71 Issue #50

15 September 2020

After our last weekend of racing ducks there are still questions to be answered. When did we start including baptisms as part of the participant options? Has this activity been cleared with Fish and Wildlife to guarantee the river remains free of pollutants? Were we able to collect an appropriate fee for the service? Is Pres-elect Jones certified to give Mr. Archambeault the correct dunking? An investigation is ongoing.

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. Watch for Ray Peterson's email on how to connect.

Our next meeting will be Installation date and format to be decided today. October meetings should be our Board Meeting on the 5th then regular meetings on the 6th and 20th.

Some of you have probably noticed that the Upcoming Events box has been missing for a couple bulletins. With virus concerns and smoke and who knows what next we may be rethinking and redesigning some important traditional events.

Installation: It could be done by Zoom but if we could do it with proper social distancing it would be better and during an afternoon event instead of a cold evening for an outdoor venue.

Cider Press: I'm sure the Cove would appreciate the cider but can we put it together in a safe manner to get it done?

Highway Cleanup: Seems like it's doable and it's certainly needed but is the state willing to let us out there yet?

Christmas at the End of the Road: Nothing is out there yet but it's hard to believe Winthrop will encourage crowding the Barn with families and putting 300-400 children on Santa's lap.

Christmas Breakfast comes next and a food event with 30-40 people in the Barn seems unlikely and the ordeals the scholarship recipients are facing around the country have been extreme. The event is a long ways off but I don't expect big changes by then and we may be celebrating the students differently this year.

And remember the Bite is only six months away. Be thinking.
