Morning Humor

A Sunday School teacher asked her class, "Does anyone here know what we mean by sins of omission?" A small girl replied, "Aren't those the sins we should have committed, but didn't?"

Dorothy, the little daughter of a tire salesman, had seen triplets for the first time. "Oh mother," she cried out upon returning home, "What do you think I saw today?" "I can't imagine, dear, what?" "A lady had twins, and a spare!"

An older man at the evening function bowed his head and wept quietly but copiously while while a young woman rendered the plaintive ballad, "My Old Kentucky Home." The hostess tiptoed up to him and inquired tenderly, "Pardon me, are you a Kentuckian?" "No, madam," the tearful one replied, "I'm a musician."

While trying to explain to our six-year-old daughter how much technology had changed, my husband pointed to our brand-new desktop computer and told her that when he was in college, a computer with the same amount of power would have been the size of a house. Wide-eyed, our daughter asked, "How big was the mouse?"

Blanche: Herb, if you don't stop snoring, I'm going to toss you out on your ear!

Herb: Does it upset you that much?

Blanche: Not just me, the entire congregation.

Mother had decided to trim her household budget wherever possible, so instead of having a dress dry-cleaned she washed it by hand. Proud of her savings, she boasted to my father, "Just think, Fred, we are five dollars richer because I washed this dress by hand." "Good," my dad quickly replied. "Wash it again!"

29 September 2020

What a frustrating year. We support a great group of 4-Hers and can't really do a lot to make up for the loss of the Okanogan County Fair and the kids chance to make some dollars on their projects. We did what we could but we'll hope for better next year.

Okay Zoomers, get ready. Tonight is Installation and we get a new set of officers sort of. Tune in to Ray Peterson's invitation and hear about annual awards and who our officers will be. Governor Melanie will be around to wish the new crew well and it won't take long and we'll be set for 2020 – 2021.

Thanks everyone for hanging in there and keeping us going. With Gary Erickson's leadership we end the year with some projects of value on the books and with most of our membership intact. Two weeks into October we'll be back at the 32 members we carried last year. Let's make the next Kiwanis year as great.

Some treasured moments

We did enjoy what we could contribute to Graduation Night.

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. Watch for Ray Peterson's email on how to connect.

Our next meeting will be Installation September 29th at 6:30 by Zoom. Incoming LtG Al Camp will induct new officers and Governor Melanie Bozak will be attending. October meetings should be our Board Meeting on the 5th then regular meetings on the 6th and 20th.

We did have to control the enthusiasm of some of our older members when it came to making yards fire-wise.

Children's Theater kids presented at our last real meeting. Everyone was ready to go see the play.
