Morning Humor

Some people grow old gracefully, while others fight and scratch the whole way. Andy's wife, refusing to give in to the looks of growing old, goes out and buys a new line of expensive cosmetics guaranteed to make her look years younger. After a lengthy sitting before the mirror applying the "miracle" products, she asks her husband, "Darling, honestly, if you didn't know me, what age would you say I am"? Looking over her carefully, Andy replied, "Judging from your skin, 20; your hair, 18; your eyes, 16 and your figure, 25." "Oh, you flatterer!" she gushed. Just as she was about to tell Andy his reward, he stops her by saying, "Whoa, hold on there sweetie! I haven't added them up yet!"

Mother decided that 7-year-old Cathy should get something 'practical' for her birthday. "Suppose we open a savings account for you?" mother suggested. Cathy was delighted. "It's your account, darling," mother said as they arrived at the bank, "so you fill out the application." Cathy was doing fine until she came to the space for 'Name of your former bank.' After a slight hesitation, she put down 'Piggy.'

An exasperated mother, whose son was always getting into mischief, finally asked him, "How do you expect to get into Heaven?" The boy thought it over and said, "Well, I'll run in and out and in and out and keep slamming the door until St. Peter says, 'For Heaven's sake, Dylan, come in or stay out!'"

A Sunday school teacher asked her little children, as they were on the way to church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."

What is it called when a chameleon can't change its colors anymore? A reptile dysfunction.

Breakfast meetings every Tuesday, 7:00 am at the Winthrop Barn

Start your engines! Again Winthrop Kiwanis has launched thousands of ducks (about 2K) down the Methow River to revive our depleted treasury. We are grateful to all the folk who helped us with our sales and advertising. Special thanks to those who sold tickets over their business counters.

Thank goodness that sales have been good this year and we are racing a few new ducks that have never swum the Methow before. We have had some enthusiastic sales people and our finances can use the dollars. Most years we dump five buckets of our yellow swimmers.

And they're off. Social distancing and all made the launching a bit less festive than usual but still a fun event.

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. Watch for Ray Peterson's email on how to connect.

Our next meeting will be September 15.

Shallow water and slow ducks made the finish line a much less frantic place to be and the winner showed up almost alone. A long cleanup and the successful event was put away.
