CLUB OF WINTHROP

Morning Humor

A surgeon was invited to Thanksgiving dinner at a friend's house. The host deftly carved the turkey and said, "I'd make a pretty good surgeon, don't you think?" The surgeon replied, "Anybody can take it apart. Let's see you put it back together again."

An officer while walking his beat sees a lady walking a skunk along the sidewalk. He says, "Hey lady, why do you have the skunk?" "This is my Social Distancing Support Animal!"

The elevator in our building malfunctioned one day, leaving several of us stranded. Seeing a sign that listed two emergency phone numbers, I dialed the first and explained our situation. After what seemed to be a very long silence, the voice on the other end said, "I don't know what you expect me to do for you. I'm a psychologist." "A psychologist?" I replied. "Your phone is listed here as an emergency number. Can't you help us?" "Well," he finally responded in a measured tone. "How do you feel about being stuck in an elevator?"

A Sunday School teacher of pre-schoolers was concerned that his students might be a little confused about Jesus Christ because of the Christmas season emphasis on His birth. He wanted to make sure they understood that the birth of Jesus occurred for real. He asked his class, "Where is Jesus today?" Steven raised his hand and said, "He's in heaven." Mary was called on and answered, "He's in my heart." Little Johnny, waving his hand furiously, blurted out, "I know, I know! He's in our bathroom!!!" The whole class got very quiet, looked at the teacher, and waited for a response. The teacher was completely at a loss for a few very long seconds. Finally, he gathered his wits and asked Little Johnny how he knew this. Little Johnny said, "Well... every morning, my father gets up, bangs on the bathroom door, and yells, 'Good Lord, are you still in there?!'"

This seems to be the official picture of that new Lundquist. I realize some of you may have seen it already as there were 277 likes and 82 comments of facebook where I stole a copy. Good job Wyatt and also Rebecca who probably did most of the work. We wish you the best

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. Watch for Ray Peterson's email on how to connect. Next meeting will be Dec 15th. Watch your email for alternatives to our traditional Christmas activities. The Board will meet Dec 1st at 1:00 to discuss the Budget then on the 7th for regular board business. If you would like to attend any of the board meetings contact President Rick for the Zoom connection information. We are trying right now to put together a virtual meeting where our 2020 graduates can tell us of their year and get a presentation of scholarship checks. We are trying for mid-morning Dec 22nd as we have found college students and some Kiwanians like to sleep in.

You got a look last week at the tree Winthrop Kiwanis secured for the Town of Winthrop. Here is another showing the contributions of time equipment and abilities of our crews. You guys are phenomenal. And in its traditional site in front of city hall it looks great.

Stuff to consider.

Please keep Carl Miller in your thoughts. His neighbors reported an ambulance took him to the hospital Saturday.

Manger Mall happens this weekend and Gloria Herron was looking for a few good hands to help. Gloria (425-876-3896)

Ranger Rick is the guy to talk to for a spot getting food to families with Neighbors Helping Neighbors. We usually provide a bunch of useful people. Rick (509-341-4423)

The Saturday after Thanksgiving has been a favorite time with Kiwanians and Key Club providing pictures with Santa and all the fun stuff we included. 2020 has been terrible with no Santa, no model railroad, no craft tables and none of the fun of doing it all. The after events fireworks were spectacular and give us hope for next year but Damn that virus.
