Morning Humor

A man walked into a restaurant in a strange town. The waiter came and asked him for his order. Feeling lonely, he replied, "Meat loaf and a kind word." When the waiter returned with the meat loaf, the man said, "Where's the kind word?" The waiter put down the meat loaf and sighed, bent down, and whispered, "Don't eat the meat loaf."

A golfer is playing a round of golf with his buddies. On the sixth hole, a hole over water, he proceeds to flub nine balls into the water. Frustrated over his poor golfing ability, he heaves his golf clubs into the water and begins to walk off the course. Then all of a sudden he turns around and jumps back in the lake, his buddies apparently thinking he is going to retrieve his clubs. When he comes out of the water he doesn't have his clubs and begins to walk off the course. Then one of his buddies asks, "Why did you jump into the lake?" And he said, "I had to, I left my car keys in the bag."

Working in an ophthalmology practice that specializes in LASIK surgery, I am expected to comfort nervous patients. But prior to one operation, the patient was so nervous she was actually shaking. Nothing I said to her would comfort her so after the doctor finished on the first eye and before he began on the second I wanted her to know the surgery was going well. "There," I said, patting her hand reassuringly, "now you only have one eye left."

A woman was driving her old beat up car on the highway with her 7 year old son. She tried to keep up with traffic but they were flying by her. After getting caught in a large group of cars flying down the road, she looked at her speedometer to see she was doing 15 miles over the speed limit. Slowing down, she moved over to the side and got out of the clump that soon left her behind. She looked up and saw the flashing lights of a police car. Pulling over she waited for the officer to come up to her car. As he did he said, "Ma'am do you know why I pulled you over?" Her son piped up from the back seat, "I do... because you couldn't catch the other cars!"

Bob Ulrich and LBHS Junior David Kominak load a pickup with a Neighbors Helping Neighbors food. Rick Jones lines up the next truck in the distance. Winthrop Kiwanians volunteering with the Cove last Saturday accumulated nearly 50 volunteer hours. We're proud of your efforts.

Ray and Avis Peterson and their vicious hound delivered food to four families between Winthrop and Mazama.

Randy and Lisa Johnson check in delivery drivers to make sure everything goes in the right direction with the right people. People were given jobs when Ranger Rick signed people up and more folk got jobs when they showed up to help. Thank you's to Gary Erickson and Kyle Lanning.

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. Watch for Ray Peterson's email on how to connect. January meetings will be our Board Meeting on the 4th and regular meetings on the 5th and 19th.

I hope everyone remembered to help light the way for Carl Miller last night to lead him deep into the mountains he loved.

Great to be involved with the Methow Valley School District and the district leaders who have done such a good job of keeping our students safe and learning this year.
