Morning Humor

A man found a magic lamp with a genie who offered him three wishes. "For my first wish," he said, "I'd like to be rich." "Okay, Rich," the genie replied, "what's your second wish?"

A newspaper reporter was writing a feature story about prison life and was interviewing one of the prisoners. "Do you watch much television here?" "Only the daytime shows," the inmate said. "At night we're locked in our cells and don't see any television." "That's too bad," the reporter said. "But I do think it's nice that the warden lets you watch it in the daytime." "What do you mean, nice?" the inmate said. "That's part of the punishment."

A large passenger plane is on its way across the Atlantic. It flies consistently at 800 km/h at 35,000 feet, when suddenly an F-22 Raptor appears. The pilot of the fighter jet slows down, flies alongside the Airbus and greets the pilot of the passenger plane by radio: "Airbus flight, a boring flight isn't it? Take care and have a look here!" He rolls his jet on its back, accelerates, breaks through the sound barrier, rises rapidly to a dizzying height, only to swoop down almost to sea level in a breathtaking dive. He loops back next to the plane and asks, "Well, how was that?" The airplane pilot answers: "Very impressive, but now have a look here!" The jet pilot watches the plane, but nothing happens. It continues to fly stubbornly straight, with the same speed. After five minutes, the plane pilot radioed, "Well, what are you saying now?" The jet pilot asks confused: "What did you do?" The other laughs and says, "I got up, stretched my legs, went to the back of the flight to the bathroom, got a cup of coffee and a cinnamon roll."

The District sent out awards this week from the Convention in August and we have new patches for our banner. Who knows when we are likely to get back in the barn to see the banners again but we have stuff to add when we do.

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. If you wish to attend and aren't on the invitation list please contact me for an invitation. Our next regular meeting will be February 16th.

If you wish to be part of the Mid-Winter Conference, remember the early-bird rate is only available until February 12th. It sounds like Governor Lonnie Johnson has it well organized so consider it.

This Friday President Rick is holding a social meeting with a wine tasting theme. If you haven't heard details and have an interest please contact him. You will need to acquire the appropriate wines and join the group at 5:00 Friday night. I will not be there but I 100% support the effort to provide a social opportunity for the club members.

If you have been carefully reading your bulletin you will have seen the advertising of the Tonasket Ground Hog sausage sales. Until this year it's been an almost automatic interclub for Winthrop to attend their dinner. This year they prepared the sausage as usual but only sold it outright without their signature dinner. The plans called for sales on the street Friday afternoon and for a longer period on Saturday. Bob and Susan Stone made the trip to Tonasket for their annual purchase of sausage and were disappointed. All the sausage sold in three hours on Friday. Good job, Tonasket!

Dick: Great News! Teacher said we would have a test rain or shine. Jane: What's so great about that? Dick: It's snowing.

I got called pretty today...

The full statement was "you're pretty annoying", but I only focus on positive things.
