Morning Humor

My brother took going to jail badly. He refused food, drinks, he spat on and swore at anybody who came near him, and started throwing things everywhere. After that we never played Monopoly again.

Little Johnny: "Grandma, if I was invited out to dinner, should I eat pie with a fork?" Grandma: "Yes, indeed, Johnny." Little Johnny: "You haven't got a pie in the house I could practice on, have you, Grandma?"

It's my wife's birthday soon and she's been leaving jewelry catalogs all over the house. She'll be happy to know I got the hint. I got her a magazine rack!

A businessman dragged himself home and barely made it to his chair before he dropped exhausted. His sympathetic wife was right there with a tall cool drink and a comforting word. "My, you look tired," she said. "You must have had a hard day today. What happened to make you so exhausted?" "It was terrible," her husband said. "The computer broke down and all of us had to do our own thinking.

On her way back from the concession stand, Sandra asked the man at the end of the row, "Sir, did I step on your foot a minute ago?" Expecting an apology the man said, "Indeed you did." Sandra nodded, "Oh, good. Then this is my row."

A mom and her children watched a PBS special showing the birth of a baby. One fascinated child asked, "Mom, does that hurt?" "Oh, yes, it does," she said, remembering her difficult deliveries. "Wow," said the kid. "Does it hurt the mother, too?"

Normally the crew will search the forests for a huge tree for the Barn and a nice large tree for the City of Winthrop. This year the Barn is locked up and the large snowfall kept us out of the backwoods. Thankfully Bill and Suellen White came through and we were able to provide the city with a nice tree. Good job crew.

Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be by Zoom. Watch for Ray Peterson's email on how to connect. Next meetings will be Dec 1st and 15th. Watch your email for alternatives to our traditional Christmas activities. The Board will meet Dec 1st at 1:00 to discuss the Budget then on the 7th for regular board business. If you would like to attend any of the board meetings contact President Rick for the Zoom connection information.

Last Saturday night little Culver Lundquist made his appearance and Uncle Seth approves of his sisters product. A couple weeks late and at 7 pounds 15 ounces and 20 inches long Rebecca got the full deal. Little Culver Swainson Lundquist is a handsome child and I'll show you a proper picture of the lad after I get mothers permission. You'll appreciate it.

If you read the Methow Valley News you often get to hear how our past graduates are doing and I was especially pleased to see this last week several of our recent scholarship recipients on the U of W Deans List. I'm not sure why all these great students went West and I may discuss it with the Liberty Bell counselors. The group included five former Key Clubbers and all had at least $1000 in scholarship money. The Huskies mentioned included Zane Herrera, Leif Portmann-Bown, Simon Studen, Aden Jones and Exie Romero.

Another article in the School Districts' MVPride told of another scholarship recipient who we also celebrate for an incredible job starting from a really tough childhood and now gaining on her goal of becoming a nurse. Amelia Osborne received one of our Be the Change scholarships and is now working in Bellingham as a certified Nursing Assistant as she takes classes to become an Registered Nurse. She'll be a very special nurse one day soon.

If you encounter news of students we know and have helped please let me know about them so we can celebrate them.

As we get into our Kiwanis year there are things we have excelled at that we aren't doing. One thing we haven't done for a while is to attend another clubs meeting for an interclub. President Rick has appointed Suellen interclub chair and she wants to get us out there. I have Al Camps email and phone number and I hear he wants to attend our next Zoom meeting. Let's rough him up and get some meeting information to get us to some interclubs.

If you check out the sign post on the front page you'll see that we are at 33 members. That's higher than any time last year though we lost two members in September. We still have over a month to grab some new folk without them paying International or District dues. See what you can do because one day soon we'll be out there doing good stuff again.
