Morning Humor

My dog sleeps about 20 hours a day. He has his food prepared for him. He can eat whenever he wants. His meals are provided at no cost to him. He visits the Dr. once a year for his checkup, and again during the year if any medical needs arise. For this he pays nothing and nothing is required of him. He lives in a nice neighborhood in a house that is much larger than he needs and he is not required to do any upkeep. If he makes a mess, someone else cleans it up. He has his choice of luxurious places to sleep. He receives these accommodations absolutely free. He is living like a King, and has absolutely no expenses whatsoever. All of his costs are picked up by others who go out and earn a living every day. I was just thinking about all this, and suddenly it hit me like a brick ... I think my dog is a member of Congress!

After writing a simple equation on the board the teacher asked if anyone could solve the problem. Little Johnny walked up to the board, erased it and said, "Problem Solved."

I went to the doctor to see if he can help me to stop smoking. He suggested that every time I felt like smoking I should reach for a chocolate bar. It didn't work, because no matter how hard I tried I couldn't get the chocolate bar to light.

My sister told me to take the spider out instead of killing him.....So we went in a bar, had a few beers, it was fun.. it turns out he was a web designer.

Are you feeling a little puny? The Key Club may be able to take care of that and bring a smile to your face, take the slack out of your baggy clothes and fill out the wrinkles forming about your face. After a couple years of no fund raising the club is about to launch a couple weeks of donut sales to fatten the treasury. Expect to see a key clubber or two one morning at our meeting to give you a chance to become the proud owner of a dozen or two of the donuts.

For the second time in the history of Liberty Bell football our players are contenders in the State Tournament. Cusick ran into hungry Mountain Lions and was battered 52-20. I think we can expect to see a request for some help feeding the team as they travel for their next game.

Jokes?

"Yes, Theo, what is it?" asked the teacher. "I don't want to alarm you, Miss Davis, but my dad said if I don't get better grades, someone was going to be in big trouble."

A real estate agent was showing a woman through a beautiful room at the top of a large hotel. "Now in this wing we have the master bedroom, bath, and den." The woman interrupted suspiciously, "And den what?"
