Morning Humor

As the storm raged, the captain realized his ship was sinking fast. He called out, "Anyone here know how to pray?" One man stepped forward. "Aye, Captain, I know how to pray." "Good," said the captain, "you pray while the rest of us put on our life jackets - we're one short."

A guy goes to the doctor, "Do you have something against a persistent hiccup?" The doctor gives him a huge slap in the face and says, "Yes. Sorry, this is the best treatment." The guy holds his cheek and says, "Okay, but it's actually my wife who's got the issue!"

My favorite spot at our local zoo is the House of Night, where nocturnal creatures crawl and fly about. One very bright day, I stepped into the exhibit and was plunged into total darkness. Almost immediately, a small hand grabbed mine. "And who do you belong to?" I asked. His answer came swiftly: "I'm yours till the lights come on!"

A Sunday school teacher asked her class, "What was Jesus' Mother's name?" One child answered, "Mary." The teacher then asked, "Who knows what Jesus' Father's name was?" Another child said, "The Verge." Confused, the teacher asked, "Where did you get that?" The little one said, "Well, you know they are always talking about The Verge n' Mary."

Kids, Wagons, electric trains, Santa Claus, Candy Canes and Fireworks. It don't get much better than this!

Step right up and give us your name and email and we'll send you the pictures of your family with Santa!

We got lots of labor out of lots of Kiwanians.

The school's propane heaters and our popup tents kept many of us warm and dry. Thanks Santa for coming.

Now lose the number so we can get the family pictures.
